

REPORT OF MARRIAGE

Requirements for Registration of Marriage

Filipinos who married in China (either to fellow Filipinos or foreigners) are required to file a Report of Marriage at the Philippine Consulate General in order for the marriage to be registered at the Philippine Statistics Authority.

To file the Report of Marriage, the applicant shall first secure from the Chinese Authorities the following documents:

- 1) Original copy, together with four (4) copies of the Authenticated Marriage Certificate, which has to pass through:
 - a. Chinese Local Notary Public of the city where the marriage was registered;
 - b. Local Foreign Affairs Office (Authentication Section) of the city where the marriage was registered.

Once these documents are obtained, submit these together with the following:

- 1) Duly Accomplished Form No. 15-86 (FSC 75-94) for Report of Marriage (4 copies);
(Forms are available at the Consulate or can be downloaded at the Consulate's website)
- 2) Original copy, together with four (4) photocopies of the authenticated Marriage Certificate/License;
