

CONSULATE GENERAL OF THE REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES SHANGHAI

ADVISORY ON EPASSPORT VALIDITY

The Philippine Consulate General in Shanghai reminds all Filipinos in Shanghai, Jiangsu, Zhejiang, Anhui and Hubei to check the validity of their passport and have it renewed if it has eight (8) months validity or less, taking into consideration the time frame a passport is delivered to the Philippine Consulate. (2 to 3 months from time of application)

In case of Filipinos returning to the Philippines for a short period of time, Filipino nationals are advised to renew their passport at the Philippine Consulate prior to leaving for the Philippines and await the release of the new passport before departure from Shanghai.

For information and guidance.

Shanghai, 01 March 2017

